

DE 69425709

A composition is disclosed for use in calibrating or controlling a serological IgM test. According to claim 1, the composition comprises a solution of a composite antibody comprising an unspecific IgM immunoglobulin part which is bound covalently to a specific, non-IgM-antibody part, wherein said specific, non-IgM antibody part is directed against a specific "infectious disease agent".